EXAMITY

Examity® provides online proctoring of the ALEKS assessment for UT Dallas. Please read below for more information.

Setup

After you have paid for access to the ALEKS exam, Examity® will provide you an account even if you decide not to use them. You will receive an email from them with login information in case you intend to use them.

Examity® System Requirements

- You must take the exam on a desktop computer or laptop (not a tablet, Chromebook or cell phone).
- You must have a working built-in or external webcam and microphone.
- Your Internet speed must be at least 2 Mbps download and 2 Mbps upload. Hot spots are not recommended. Determine your Internet speed by running a test at: http://www.speedtest.net

Payment and Testing

After you have logged in to Examity®:

- You will pay after you select a day and time that works for you.
- You will be brought to a secure payment page immediately following where they accept all major credit and debit cards.
- Currently, Examity® will charge $17.75 for two hours of proctoring. Examity® requires more than 24 hours notice for online proctoring.
- There will be an additional charge for setting up a proctoring time under the 24 hour window.

When you are ready to test, Examity® will begin Live Authentication:

- Do not log into ALEKS until after you have logged into Examity® and begun the Authentication. This will help ensure that Examity® knows it is you, the student, taking the exam.
- If you are already logged into ALEKS before the Live Authentication, you will be prompted to log out of ALEKS and log back in.
- NOTE: Examity® may have the ALEKS link available to you however you should have the link provided in the ALEKS payment email ready in case you need it.

Once you are into the test (meaning after the proctor enters a password):

- The proctor drops off but they will continue to record your screen and webcam up until you submit your test.
- It is critical that you stay connected to the screen sharing application until you submit your
• Cheating will invalidate your test for placement purposes.
• If you need assistance while testing, you should contact the Examity® Support team and a member of their support team will bring the proctor back into the screen sharing session with you to help with whatever assistance you need.
