Comet Cents Team Members

Comet Cents Team Members are peer financial coaches who help fellow students reach financial stability and independence. The financial coaches are trained and certified in personal finance.

Aditya Enjeti

Aditya is a senior Finance major. He joined the Comet Cents program because he wanted to use the knowledge he learned from classes to help other students on campus. He has enjoyed giving presentations and helping students navigate their finances. He hopes to see you in a workshop or an appointment soon!
Mohammed Zakaria

Mohammed Zakaria is a sophomore Finance and Economics double major looking to work in the corporate world or as a professor. He is the newest addition to the Comet Cents Money Management Center and started working with the team this Spring. Mohammed believes that financial literacy should be accessible to everyone and wants to make sure he does his part to help his message reach as many people as possible. During his free time, Mohammed enjoys playing soccer and board games with his friends.
Selam Mizu

Selam Mizu is a senior Economics Major at The University of Texas at Dallas. She has been with Comet Cents since she was a freshman in college. Her work consists of promoting financial literacy in young adults in and out of the office. Selam loves couponing and getting a bargain.
