The Office of Undergraduate Education’s mission is to ensure that educational experiences for all undergraduates are enriching, diverse, and challenging so that they become globally aware and engaged citizens, while also reaching their individual goals and potential.

Serving all undergraduates, we strive for equality through equity-minded practice. The Office of Undergraduate Education approaches student success holistically, working with stakeholders across campus.

Learn more about our programs and initiatives in the menu on your right.