FO 2.202B

Dr. Kirby joined the Pre-Law Advising Center in February 2018. Dr. Kirby received her undergraduate degree in Political Science from the University of Texas at Dallas, and a Juris Doctor from Southern Methodist University. She practiced law for over 20 years, primarily as in-house counsel for the finance division of Xerox Corporation. After leaving the practice of law, Dr. Kirby obtained her PhD in Political Science from the University of Texas at Dallas, and spent two and a half years as Lecturer and Pre-Law Advisor at the University of North Texas. Dr. Kirby was the Director of Paralegal Studies at Texas Wesleyan University for eight years, where she taught a variety of courses and advised pre-law students through the M.D. Anderson Pre-Professional Program. Dr. Kirby has coached Mediation and Moot Court teams, and was the founder of the UTD Mock Trial team. She is currently the Treasurer of the Southwest Association of Pre-Law Advisors, and has access to a broad network of advisors and law school admissions personnel.

Dr. Kirby's mission as Pre-Law Advisor is to assist students throughout the law school admissions process, from early consideration of law as a career to the student's final decision about law school matriculation.
