The Office of Undergraduate Education

Graduation Help Desk

Mission
The Graduation Help Desk is a one-stop resource for undergraduate students who need assistance with roadblocks potentially hindering their ability to graduate on time. The Graduation Help Desk works with students, faculty, staff and advisors to resolve roadblocks.

Help Desk Checklist for Students

Contact your advisor in your college or school. Advisors can answer most questions. This is an important step because processes can vary from school to school, and advisors are the most knowledgeable resources about specific degree requirements.
Consult UT Dallas' Resources for Study and Campus Life
Still have questions? Contact us: graduationhelpdesk@utdallas.edu